5 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7 AT TACOMA

8 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

CASE NO. CR07-5346 BHS

9 Plaintiff,

ORDER

v.

10 LARRY EDWARD TARRER II,

11 Defendant.
12

13 This matter is before the Court on Defendant Larry Tarrer's Motion for Early 14 Termination of Supervised Release. Dkt. 166. The United States Probation Office filed a 15 response to his motion asserting that, due to his criminal history, it does not recommend 16 early termination of supervised release. Dkt. 169 at 2. The Government additionally 17 opposes early termination because Tarrer has served only one of the four years of 18 supervised release. Dkt. 168.

19 The Court finds that early termination of Tarrer's supervised release is not 20 appropriate at this time. Part of the calculus in choosing the length of a sentence for 21 imprisonment and supervised release is public safety. The nature of Tarrer's state
22 convictions for murder, attempted murder, and manslaughter, and his federal convictions

1 for conspiracy to distribute MDMA and possession with intent to distribute MDMA,
2 cocaine base, and cocaine require the Court to give primary consideration to public
3 safety. Under these circumstances, Tarrer having served only one of four years of 4 supervised release is insufficient to warrant the early termination of his term of 5 supervision. The Court recognizes, however, that complete compliance with the 6 conditions of supervised release for an extended period demonstrates rehabilitation and 7 warrants consideration of early termination of supervision. The possibility of early 8 termination provides incentive to defendants to do well on supervision. The Court will 9 consider a renewed motion for early termination of supervised release filed on or after 10 August 1, 2024, provided Tarrer continues with complete compliance of his conditions of 11 release.

12 Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion for Early Termination of 13 Supervised Release, Dkt. 166, is DENIED.

14 Dated this 14th day of September, 2023.
